COURT BATTLE ON TO SMASH COMBINE OF STANDARD OIL

Roosevelt, Charging that Trust Is Beating the Law, Orders Action in Court to End the Giant Monoply.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 15 .- Suit to shatter the Standard Oil Trust, prompted by President Roosevelt, was brought by Attorney-General Moody in the United States Circuit Court here to-day.

This action, in which all the force of the Federal Government will be used, to break apart the seventy constituent companies from the Standard Oil holding concern and compel each to do business independently and according to the Sherman law, is intended as the final is left of the and decisive blow against the giant monopoly which John D. Rockefeller founded, and which, Attorney-General Moody alleges, has had an illegal existence for thirty-six years.
